POISONED BY ACONITE.

An inquest was held at Morrisania, Westchester county, yesterday by Coroner Bathgate touching the somewhat mysterious death of a German woman named Anna Epert, the particulars of which appeared in the Harald of yesterday. A post-mortem examination of the remains tended to show that examination of the remains tended to show that deceased had ded from the effects of some violent regetable poisol. The empty vial found in the dead woman's apartment was fully recognized by the druggist who had sold it to her husband some months previously; the witness also testifying that it had contained one ounce of tincture of aconite. The prescription was intended to be used externally incases of rhetmatism. It was also proved that deceased had of late been very intemperate, and on more than one occasion threatened to destroy heresit. The jury lendered a vertict "that deceased had one to be death by tincture of aconite, administered by herself while laboring under a temporary aberration of intellect."

SMALLPOX IN JERSEY CITY.

The Board of Education of Jersey City adopted a The Board of Education of Jersey City adopted a resolution at their meeting on Tuesday night cailing on the Health Inspector to have the pupils in schools 7, 8, 9 and 10 vaccinated as soon as possible.

Ar. Brown, who offered the resolution, stated that no less than 120 cases of smallpox exist in the Second School district. And yet the Police Commissioners, who are charged with the sanitary condition of the city continue to disregard all the warnings given to them. The Herallo has frequently called attention to the necessity for the appointment of an encient health inspector. One of the city physicians also pointed out the remedy which the Board of Health should adopt, yet the latter seem to pass their official existence like theother Boards of the present city government, without carins much for the interests of the people. In Bankruptoy Copartnership Liabilities-Alleged Counterfeiting-The Callender Case-The Powers of the State Attorney General in Question-Decisions.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT-IN BANKRUPTCY. Copartnership Liabilities-Asjudiention Bankruptcy Denied,

Before Judge Blatchford. In the Matter of the Petition of James H. Warner and Others. Syesterday Judge Blatchford rendered his decision in this case. His Honor says it is very clear on the evidence that there ought not to be any adjudication against Angerson, Willets or Abrams, for the following reasons:—

First—That the petitioning creditor was never a creditor to Anderson. Willets and Abrams, other wise than through such liability on their part as could arise out of the checks given him, which were signed in the name of Warner, McEirath & Co. by Anderson.

signed in the name of Warner, McEirath & Co. by Anderson.

Second—These checks, in view of the evidence, do not establish that there was any copartnership called Warner, Dickson, McEirath & Co., of whitch Anderson, Willets and Abrams were members, or either of them was a member. They were merely drawn against moneys which, if on deposit to meet them, would have been so on deposit as the specific proceeds of sales of peaches, and would have been deposited to the credit of an account which had been opened in the name of Warner, Dickson, McEirath & Co., as representing such proceeds, to keep them separate from moneys on deposit in the same bank to the credit of an account which had been opened in the name of Warner, Dickson, McEirath & Co.

Third—Then the written agreement between the two firms, Warner, Dickson & McEirath and Anderson & Co., in their firm usine, did not constitute a partnership between the six members of the two firms in respect to the peach business, so as to make the members of the firm of Anderson & Co. liable to the petitioning creditor on any of the indebtedness set forth in the petition.

Fourth—It is not established that any such partnership, created in any manner, existed.

The petition is dismissed, with costs.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS' COURT.

Before Commissioner Shields.

The United States vs. Patrick Kelly.—The defendant has been in prison for some time back on a charge of naving carried on the sale of counterfeit money. He was yesterday admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000, to take his trial in the ensuing term of the Circuit Court on the accusation in question. It will be remembered that shortly after Relly was arrested a statement was put in circulation to the effect that he had attempted to cut his throat with a knife or razor, and that he had lost a considerable quantity of blood. On the other hand, it has been said that Kelly made no such attempt upon his life, but that in order to create a kind of sympathy in his favor he feigned suicide by drawing, not a knife or a razor, but a bloody cloth across his throat. The detectives say that Kelly has travelled round in a cart, seiling bogus money. But if the man is to be convicted it must be on better testimony than that of the smuggiers and rowdles who constitute a portion of the staff of the Secret Service Division in this city.

Before Judge Cardozo. Yeaton vs. The Tobacco Manufacturing Company .- This suit was brought to dissolve the pany.—This suit was brought to dissolve the detendants' company on the ground of alleged fraud. State Attorney General Champlain discontinued the suit. The plaintiff yesterday moved to have the dismissal of the suit set aside and the suit continued, claiming in support of the motion that he is the real party in interest and that no notice was given to him of the discontinuance. On behalf of the Attorney General it was contended that he had a right to discontinue at any time any suit brought in his oficial capacity. After hearing the decision.

the Present Year.
Judge Dowling held an extra session of the above Judge Dowling held an extra session of the above Court yesterday and disposed of every case on the calendar, none of which, however, were or special importance. To-day he holds another session—the last of the year—and at its close there will not remain on the calendar for the whole year one case untried. This will leave the Court a rair start and a clear field for the incoming year and will prevent the possibility of any one's complaining of their case having been left over or neglected.

The Business of the Past Year. Now that the year is drawing to a close a retrobeen transacted in the various Courts since the 1st of January last. There have been 2,827 cases before of January last. There have been 2,827 cases before Judges Gibert and Pratt, sitting in the Supreme Court, Circuit, while the calendars at Special Terms contained 321 cases and the General Term 480 cases. The Special Term business has been progressing almost without interruption, and the minutes occupy four large volumes, which is exclusive of exparte matters. The Judges that also held ctrouts in the other counties of the Second indictal district. In the City Court Judge's Nellson and Moune's jury calendars nave numbered 3,400 cases, two-thirds of which have been disposed of. Of all the cases before Judge McCue all save one have been decided, and in that a decision will be readered this week. A great deal of equity business has also been disposed of by bon Judges. One of the Judges of the City Court, Thompson, has had the misfortune to be ill the most of the time and is not able to resume his duties on the bench. Among the most important cases tried in the civil branches of this Court were those of Madden vs. The Staten Island Railroad Company, Homans vs. Earle for breach of promise, the Central Bank cases, &c. In the criminal branch of the City Court, which seems to have taken the place of the Court of Sessions, masmuch as nothing has been done in the latter tribunal for months, many cases have been disposed of and a number of villainous characters sent up. "Dr." Perry was there convicted of having caused the death of Miss Emily A. Post, and sentenced to the State Prison. The jury disagreed on the trial of his alleged accomplice, Madame van Buskirk, who is now awaiting another trial.

Considerable business had also been transacted in the United States District and Circuit and United States Commissioners' Courts, though not as much as formerly, when there was a high tax on whiskey, and hundreds of illicit stills were in full blast, in the Fifth ward in particular, and the city in general. The Assessor and Marshall's men have, however, made several raids in "Friedlown" and captured a very busy one in the Courts. Judges Gilbert and Pratt, sitting in the Supreme

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

The Defunct Brooklyn Market-Decision by Judge Benedict-Sale of Encambered Property by an Assignee in Bankruptcy.

An application was made on behalf of the assignee in bankruptcy of Ernest Sacchi for an order authorizing the sale of the Brooklyn market property, subject only to a first mortgage. Yesterday Judge

Benedict rendered the following decision in the case:—

I am of the opinion that under the first section of the Bankruptcy act the Bankrupt Court acquires jurisdiction to order a sale of encambered property of the bankrupt free from the encumbrances, which encumbrances will be thereby transferred to the proceeds of the sale. I am further or the opinion that upon the facts, so far as they have been made to appear in support of this petition, it will be for the interest of the estate to sell the real estate referred to, subject to the first mortgage, and free from all other liens or encumbrances. But I am of the opinion that no such order of sale can be properly made without previous notice to all persons claiming to have liens, encumbrances or interests in said property, and that the present application must be dealed, inasmuch as it does not appear what persons have liens, encumbrances and interests in said property, nor that such persons have had notice of this application. Whether the relief in question can be granted on a petition in the Hankruptcy Court or should be prayed for by a bill in equity it is not necessary now to decide.

Attorney General Champiain made application for an order dissolving each of the following insurance companies and for the appointment of a receiver in each case:—The Atlantic, of Brooklyn, and Manhattan and Security, of New York. The order was granted in each case, and the Court appointed John D. Cox receiver for the Atlantic, Chauncey Dobell for the Manhattan and A. F. Hastings for the Security.

been made by County Judge Moore:—
On the first Monday of every month the trial of issues of law and fact in the County Court, before a jury; in the Court of Sessions, on each first Monday of the month, commencing with the first Monday of the Bothary, with the exception of the 1st of August, a grand and a pett jury will be drawn and summoned to attend.

Each of the said terms of the County Court and the Court of Sessions will commence at ten o'clock in the Iorenoon, and will be held in the County Court House, in the city of Brooklyn.

The County Judge, when not engaged in holding the County Court or Court of Sessions, will attend at his Chambers in the Court House every Saturday at ten o'clock A. M., and on such other days as his official engagements will permit, except during the month of August, for the transaction of Chamber business.
